In Memoriam

In loving memory of Hazel Lee Campbell, who passed away May 1, 1972.
It has been three years of heartache,
Since you went away.
But we have your memory to help us though each day.
We still see your smile and your sweet gentle face.
But there is no one here to take your place.

Card of Thanks

Toby and I both want to say how very much we appreciate your prayers, visits, cards, and helpful deeds while I was in the hospital and since returning home.

Thank you!
Mrs. Helen Inge

I would like to express my deep appreciation to my pastor, Rev. Doyle Chauncey, other ministers, my friends from my own church and other churches for their prayers, visits, flowers, food, cards and gifts while I was in the hospital and since my return home. Your genuine concern will always be remembered.

May God richly bless each one of you.

VIRGINIA: In the Circuit Court of Appomattox County
Jessee Hollingsworth, Complainant
v.
Roosevelt Patterson, et als, Defendants
ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to set aside and avoid a certain deed dated May 1, 1974,) between Roosevelt Patterson and Diane Patterson, alias Diane Tate Patterson, or Diane Tate, as a fraudulent conveyance and to subject the real estate therein described to the payment of the complainant, a judgment creditor, of Roosevelt Patterson. The real property herein sought to be sold to satisfy the judgment of the complainant is briefly described as a certain tract or parcel of real estate being in Clover Hill District of Appomattox County, Virginia , about two miles northeast of Pamplin containing approximately 56 acres, more or less, and being the tract of real estate that was conveyed unto Pearl Patterson and Roosevelt Patterson by deed dated February 5, 1955, which is of record in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Appomattox County, Virginia, in Deed Book 62, page 30.

And whereas having been made and filed that Roosevelt Patterson, Diane Patterson, alias Diane Tate Patterson or Diane Tate, all being the same person, are not residents of this State and that Pauline Patterson, after the exercise of due diligence to ascertain in this county or corporation she is, cannot be found and such diligence has been without effect; and the bill stating that there are or may be persons interested in the subject to be sold whose names are unknown and making them parties defendant by the general description of "Parties Unknown",

It is ORDERED that the said non-resident defendants, namely, Roosevelt Patterson, Diane Patterson, alias Diane Tate Patterson or Diane Tate, and Pauline Patterson, and the said persons the defendants by the general description of "Parties Unknown", do appear within ten days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their interests, and that the "Unknown Parties" referred to herein are believed to be creditors who hold liens against the real estate herein described.

New Citizens Band Radio Team

The Central Virginia React Team is a citizen band radio organization which has recently been organized in the area of Appomattox County. Central Virginia React is affiliated with national React. An organization set up to handle emergencies and to help stranded motorists on the busy highways of the nation by monitoring channel 9 of the citizen band radio. Giving assistance and directions to stranded motorists and truckers alike in their time of need. Central Virginia is one of many React Teams in the state of Virginia with local clubs in Lynchburg and Farmville. Central Virginia has assisted in many emergencies and assisted many stranded motorists in need of directions in the short time it has been organized.

Central Virginia React is recruiting new members in the Appomattox County and surrounding areas who have base stations and who will be interested in monitoring channel 9 at least 4 hours weekly. And who are interested in lending assistance in emergency. Central Virginia React will be holding a coffee break in Appomattox at the Wopdman of World Hall on Saturday, May 8 from 7 until 11 p.m. Anyone wishing information may contact any member for information and applications. Applications will be available at the coffee break. We welcome all visitors to our monthly meetings, which are held at 2:30 p.m. in the afternoon on the first Sunday of every month.

Mrs. Davis' 4-H of March

Pat Page, president, was absent so Robin Paulette, vice president, opened our meeting. Sharon David led the 4-H pledge and Greg Mayberry led the Pledge of Allegiance to the American flag. Our recreation leaders led us in a game. Terri Nash, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. Mr. Goldman talked to us about the demonstration contest which has already past. He also talked about the pine seedlings. Mr. Sweet talked about the interstate exchange, 4-H'ers changing with other states. He also talked about the poster contest in June about the Dairy milk. Mr. Sweet showed us some slides about 4-H camp and what the people will be doing.

Then Robin Paulette, closed the meeting.

YOUNG HEARTS CLUB

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy F. Staton of Westview Drive in Lynchburg was the meeting place for the Young Hearts Club on April 19. Thirty-six members made the trip to visit and enjoy the lovely azaleas raised by Mr. and Mrs. Staton. Amid the picturesque setting Mrs. Helen Gunter, club president, presided over the business session which was held on the lawn.

Mr. Staton then gave the group a tour of his workshop. As a hobby he makes lovely pieces of furniture right in his own backyard. Members were later invited inside where they enjoyed the assortment of delicious foods served by Mrs. Staton.

Everyone enjoyed the day to the fullest and feels very grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Staton for the hospitality shown. A trip to Chinquapin Plantation is being planned for the May meeting.

LOCAL MUSIC STUDENTS AUDITION

Twenty local piano pupils from the class of Virginia Carnefix, have registered and played in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers of which their teacher is a member. This group of young hobbyists played in the national Piano Playing Auditions on May 4, striving for Pledges, Local, District and National honors which the Mother organization conferred according to the number of standard classic, romantic, and modern pieces chosen from the Masters of pianoforte literature each student creditably performed in the presence of an imported examiner from another state.

From coast to coast over 80,000 piano pupils of our nation, will participate in this annual national piano-playing event held in 700 music centers of our country. Every entrant worth of passing received a certificate, a gold or bronze embossed pin, and a year's membership in the national Fraternity of Student Musicians and a year's membership in the National Guild of Piano Teachers.

Begun at Hardin-Simmons University, Abeline, Texas in 1929. National headquarters are still maintained in Texas where rules and regulations are available on request free of charge by addressing Piano Guild, Box 1902, Austin, Texas 78767.

The names of these local entrants, pupils of Virginia Carnefix are Lisa Rogers, Mike McCoy, Sharon Cheatham, J. J. Dalton, Michelle Crowe, Sheila Roach, Darlene Howard, Traci Schmutz, Charles Womack, Lurie Cowen, Laura Shorter, Robert Womack, Gwen Ferguson, Dave Caldwell, Denise Webb, Lisa Williamson, Brett Marston, Pam Scruggs, Janice Foster and Carolyn Carnefix.
